Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on RCE filed 6/7/05.

2a) This action is FINAL. 2b) This action is non-final.

3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/7/05 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ohshima (USPN 6,348,519).

With respect to claim 1, Ohshima et al discloses a recording for ink printer comprising:

- Colorants (Column 3: line 51)
- Water (Column 3: line 64)

- Fine particles of at least one photo-curable resin (Column 5: line 55-56) and at least two non-photo-curable resins (Column 4: line 66-67 shows one non-photo-curable resin and Column 6: line 37-41 shows another non-photo-curable resin)
- Wherein at least one of the non-photo-curable resins is a self cross linking resin (Column 4: line 66-67);
- The content of the photo-curable resin relative to the total weight of the non-photo-curable resin and the photo-curable-resin is from about 10 to about 80% (Column 5: line 56-60).

Ohshima discloses the claimed invention except for the total solids content of the resin particles ranges between 20-80%. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the total solids content of the resin particles ranges between 20-80%, since it has been held that the general condition of a claim are discloses in the prior art, discovering the optimum range involves only routine skill in the art.

3. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ohshima et al (USPN 6,348,519) in view of Mathias (USPN 5,513,569).

Ohshima discloses the claimed invention except that using screen printing instead of inkjet printing. Mathias shows that screen printing and inkjet printing is an equivalent structure known in the art (Column 6: line 58-67). Therefore, because screen printing and inkjet printing were art recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to substitute inkjet printing for screen printing for the same purpose as printing an image.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 6/7/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's argument that Ohshima does not teach at least two non-photo-curable resin is not persuasive because refer to Column 4: line 66-67 shows one non-photo-curable resin and Column 6: line 37-41 shows another non-photo-curable resin.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ly T. TRAN whose telephone number is 571-272-2155. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (7:30am-5pm).
